

Barbara Gwen Henderson, First Term (2013)
Professional Representative

Gwen Henderson relocated to Washington Metro area in 1986 from Seoul, Korea with her military spouse and two daughters. In 2007, she retired from BB&T as a vice president after 18 years. In 2008, she began a second career as a real estate salesperson. She and her husband bought a condominium in a professionally managed common ownership community in 1992 as empty nesters. Since moving to her new community, Gwen has been actively involved by serving as a member of the founding covenants committee, Director of the Board, Secretary of the Board and is currently the President of the Board.

Gwen chose to serve on the Commission on Common Ownership Communities to assist in promoting public awareness of the rights and obligations of those living in these types of communities.
